New British shows start June 2 on KLRU. I Want My Wife Back: Murray is the nicest guy you could hope to meet. He's a devoted husband; he works hard, and is a loyal friend and colleague. When he throws a surprise 40th birthday party for his wife Bex, it's Murray who gets the biggest surprise of the night - she's leaving him. Murray's quest to win Bex back is going to be quite a struggle. Mum: Mum is a brand new family comedy seen through the eyes of Cathy, a mother in her late fifties who finds herself at a milestone in life after the death of her husband. Marley's Ghosts: a new comedy about a woman who tries to work, love and, most importantly, live, while sharing her life with three ghosts. Can they all learn to co-exist under the same roof?

education News

What do science lessons and family bonding have in common? For Patrick, Lucinda and Naomi Stanton, the connection comes from their time together at the Ruff Ruffman Family & Community Learning workshop.

The Stanton's participated in this four week series along with other area families. Designed to spark STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Math) interest in young children, the workshop also empowers parents like Patrick and Lucinda to support their child's education both at school and home.

"With the four weeks of science projects and doing things and meeting different people, Naomi learned a lot. It was awesome!" Patrick's observation of his daughter's time at the Ruff Ruffman workshop is a testament to what a valuable experience these sessions are for kids and parents alike. Get the full story at klru.org
